

STACEY VINSON
- GROWING TOGETHER INSTRUCTIONAL
LEADERSHIP DIRECTOR

Education:

- University of Tulsa (BA, 1992)
- Northeastern State University (MA, 1995)
- University of Oklahoma (Doctoral Candidate)

Stacey Vinson joined the Tulsa Public Schools family in 1992 as a Spanish teacher at Memorial High School. She served as principal at Edison Preparatory School from 2006 to 2010 and moved to the role of founding principal at the expanded Will Rogers College Junior and Senior High School in 2011. During her tenure at Will Rogers, Stacey was the recipient of the 2013 Oklahoma High School Principal of the Year Award.

Stacey moved into district administration in 2013 as Instructional Leadership Director for the district's Growing Together schools in the Kendall Whittier and Eugene Field neighborhoods. She currently serves as a Secondary Instructional Leadership Director serving six high schools and five junior high and middle schools. Stacey is committed to ensuring that all TPS graduates are prepared to the greatest personal, professional, and academic success.

Stacey enjoys traveling, scuba diving, and enjoying time with friends and family.

SERVING:

- Clinton Middle School
- East Central Junior High & High School
- Edison Prep Junior High & High School
- Hale High School
- McLain 7th Grade Academy
- McLain Junior High & High School
- Rogers College Junior High & High School
- Webster High School