

Phillips

Home of the Wildcats!

3613 S Hudson Avenue Tulsa Oklahoma
918-746-9180

Jane Looney, Principal
School colors are red and white.

Waite Phillips Elementary School is a culturally diverse community. The staff at Phillips is noted for their commitment to the success of children. Our curriculum is standards-based focusing on inquiry activities, using brain friendly strategies for student learning. The school is named after Waite Phillips, a famous Tulsa oilman, who donated Villa Philbrook to the citizens of Tulsa to become the city's first art museum.

For more information, visit www.tulsaschools.org/schools/phillips.

Student Information

American Indian	8.2%
Asian	2.1%
African American	32.4%
Hispanic	9.8%
Caucasian	47.5%
Students on IEP	16.8%
Students with free lunch	66.5%
Attendance	93.2%
Total Students (End of Year 2006)	244

Oklahoma Core Curriculum Test — Spring 2006 Regular Ed Scoring Satisfactory or Advanced

	3 rd	4 th	5 th
Math	85%	83%	83%
Reading	85%	91%	88%
Science			77%
Social Studies			59%
Writing

Adequate Yearly Progress? Yes.

Activities

- ◆ Student Council
- ◆ Breakfast program
- ◆ Before and After School Care
- ◆ Safety Patrol
- ◆ Urban Fine Arts Outreach
- ◆ Mentoring
- ◆ Tribes

Curriculum

- ◆ Full-day Kindergarten
- ◆ Full-day 4 year old program
- ◆ Music program – Full time Staff
- ◆ Multi-level tutoring
- ◆ Physical Education program – Part time staff
- ◆ Strings – Gr. 5
- ◆ Science Inquiry – FOSS, NSRC Kits
- ◆ Operation Aware
- ◆ Harwelden

Staff Information

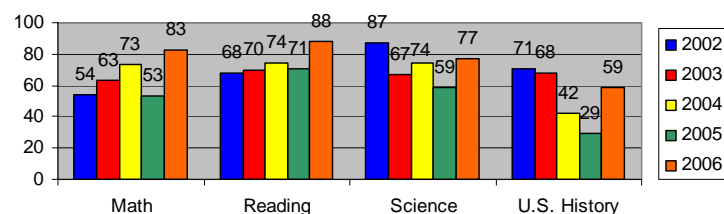

Advanced degrees
Doctorate	0
Masters	10
Bachelor	11
Experienced (11+ years)	48%
Highly Qualified	100%
Attendance	98.0%

Minority	9%
Gender
Female	20
Male	1

Student Teacher Ratio 13.5 to 1

Classes with 30 or more students 0
(Start time – 8:00, End time – 2:45)

Oklahoma Core Curriculum Test Results - Percent Satisfactory - 5th Grade

Academic Performance Index Comparison

