

Central High School

Fine & Performing Arts Magnet School

Having a long tradition in Tulsa, Central High School Fine and Performing Arts Magnet School offers thirty-three Fine Arts courses, including three AP Studio Art Classes, AP Art History and AP Music Theory. The school employs Artists-In-Residence from the community which includes Earl Clark, Millicent Adu H-Torah and Michael McClure, in addition to many visiting artists to enhance and enrich the educational experiences of our students. Many of our Fine Arts students from the community attend Central on a Fine Arts transfer. Additionally, Central offers students fourteen Pre-AP classes and eighteen AP courses. Central High School Fine & Performing Arts Magnet School is proud of the curriculum we offer to our students.
